

Easter Display of Trimmings

Our Easter showing has eclipsed anything heretofore on view. If you have not seen the beautiful display come now. It is not too late. We wish to call particular attention to our line of Children's trimmed hats, all at exceedingly low prices.

Ladies' and Children's Hosiery at Almost Half Price

This is a startling statement but nevertheless true. We are changing lot numbers on our stock, hence the great cut in prices. We have placed on our counters odd lots and broken sizes and have cut the prices nearly in half. The lines are all good and every pair of hose warranted. Who can afford to miss this opportunity?

THE ELKS' MINSTREL SHOW

THE PROGRAM OF FUN AND JEST AND PLEASANTY THAT WILL BE STIRRED AT IT.

The Elks' Minstrel show, which is now almost ready for production, will be given on April 27 and 28. Rehearsals have been taking place regularly and both principals and chorus are thoroughly familiar with their parts.

An innovation is promised by Stage manager W. D. Adams, in that instead of a regular olio after the first part, there will be three after pieces, consisting of a burlesque quartette, a comedy sketch and a farce comedy.

The first part will include the largest and best chorus ever heard in Honolulu in a double circle, and an additional novelty will be the introduction of two "end men" of the gentler sex, played by Miss Gertrude Hall and Mrs. J. G. Pratt. Both of these ladies have been seen often in amateur productions here, and their work needs no comment.

The other end men will be Guy Livingston, Hastings Howland, Walter Doyle and Paymaster Brown, an array of fun-makers it would be hard to equal anywhere. As the excited ruler has promised to fine heavily any end man springing a gag that is not brand new it is assured that the audience will not find a dull moment.

The first part will be followed by a burlesque quartette composed of Guy Livingston, J. D. Dougherty, J. H. Howland and C. Schwartz, who will appear in character parts and illustrate various popular songs by the "living picture" system. The system, however, is an entirely original one, and no lantern slides or biographs will be used.

The next act will be a sketch entitled "A Happy Pair," in which the characters will be taken by Mr. Adams and Miss Gertrude Hall the performance to conclude with a roaring farce by the company called "A Country School," which has been arranged by Harry D. Cousins. In this, local jokes, songs, recitations, and repartee between school master, pupils and committee men follow in dazzling succession. Guy Livingston in the character of Christopher Columbus Pitts, who stutters, is alone worth the price of admission and "Rem" Harrison, as the teacher, a character part entirely new will be a surprise.

DAVIS IS THE MAN

News of the appointment of Davis reached the department soon after the appointment was made, and the new superintendent received the congratulations of his associates, among them Inspector Baldwin, who was understood to be the other leading candidate. The governor had intimated that he intended to promote one of those in the department, instead of bringing in an outsider as was reported to be the intention when the first changes were made. The investigations by Carter and others have shown the existence of an excellent system in the department and showed that the "reorganization" was not necessary. Those in the department are disposed to regard this as a vindication of their work, and are pleased that the choice fell to one who was already a member of the department.

The new superintendent has been a teacher in the islands for about thirteen years, and was appointed an inspector on the first of last September. Prior to that he had been in charge of a school at Hanalei and had taken the work of inspection as a substitute. He has the degree of B. A. from Fluk University, class of '95, and has a life certificate as a teacher from the State of Texas, '91. He also has a life certificate under the Republic of Hawaii and this morning, at about the same time that Governor Carter was making out his commission and sending it to the Senate, the Board of Education commissioners took favorable action on his application for a life certificate from the Territory.

The new superintendent stated that he had not made any plans yet as to changes in the department. The resignation of Atkinson was accepted some days ago, to take effect on the appointment of his successor, and the appointment of Davis was therefore sufficient to make the change, but Davis has not yet assumed formal charge. He is expected to do so at once. It is understood that subordinates in the department will offer their resignations. The commissioners, it is stated, have decided to remain in office at present. None of them have resigned as yet, and they will probably not do so for the present.

The new appointee was highly spoken of by Superintendent Atkinson. "I am glad that one of the department has been chosen," said the retiring superintendent. "I should have been satisfied personally with the selection of any one of several men in the department." Atkinson said that his relations with Davis had always been pleasant, and spoke highly of his abilities.

A letter from the House challenging the Senate to a game of baseball to be played next Saturday was received, and Dowsett moved that it be accepted with the condition that only members of the House and Senate be included in the two nine. This carried and the Senate adjourned.

IN THE HOUSE

The Senate sent down its Joint Resolution No. 5, to memorialize Congress to pass an act exempting religious, benevolent, charitable and scientific corporations from the restriction in the Organic Act which limits the real estate holdings of such corporations to 1000 acres of land. The preamble set forth that the Bishop and priests of the Roman Catholic Church in Hawaii wish to incorporate in the islands, but they own in the islands more than 1000 acres and an act of Congress is needed to protect them in their vested rights.

The Joint Resolution was adopted by 26 to 2, only Hais and Long voting against it.

The Senate notified the House of its refusal to appoint another Conference Committee on House Bill 43, respecting roads and bridges.

The Senate returned the Usury bill amended by using the word "offense" instead of "crime" in the title and by amending section 1 to read thus:

"Any person who directly or indirectly receives any interest, discount or consideration for or upon the loan or forbearance to enforce the payment of money, goods or things in action, greater than two per cent per month, shall be guilty of usury and punishable by imprisonment for a term not exceeding $250, or both."

The House concurred in the amendments.

AUTOS AT THE CLUB STABLES

The Club Stables has added an automobile department to its livery business. C. H. Bellina, in his determination to keep his business right up to date, has put in, through Gus Schuman, a Ford auto of the latest make, carrying three passengers, and has ordered three more to carry four persons each. They are expected to arrive here very soon. They will add greatly to the facilities for accommodating tourists, and will enable them to get about seeing the lights in the same way as they do on the mainland, or in Europe.

The automobile now running from the Club Stables has been here several months, and has given great satisfaction to all who have ridden in it.

The ease and speed of auto travel is so fascinating to a person, that it is difficult to settle down to the horse and phaeton after the luxury of an auto ride. The run to the Fall, to Diamond Head, and to Moanalua affords a person a delightful spin, and tourists are enthusiastic over it. The government is rapidly improving the roads all over and around the island. In a very short time one will be able to leave in an auto out of the Club Stables in the early morning, and breakfast at a point half way around the island, and be back to luncheon in Honolulu.

Mr. Bellina says that he finds that many of our people, who do not care to undergo the expense of purchasing an auto, would order one at a stable for temporary use just as they now order a horse and carriage; and he will be able to accommodate them.

HALEIWA.

The Haleiwa Hotel, Honolulu's famous country resort, on the line of the Oahu Railway, contains every modern improvement and affords its guests an opportunity to enjoy all amusements—golf, tennis, billiards, fresh and salt water bathing, shooting, fishing, riding and driving. Tickets, including railway fare and one full day's room and board, are sold at the Honolulu Station and Trent & Company for $5. For departure of trains, consult time table.

On Sundays, the Haleiwa Limited, a two hour train, leaves at 8:22 a. m.; returning, arrives in Honolulu at 10 p. m. and has kept the band organization during his stay at the Settlement, attending to that part of the work in addition to other duties. He will readily be recalled by visitors to the Settlement as one of handsome, youthful appearance and courteous manner.

About a year and a half ago Brother Serapion discovered to his horror that he had contracted the disease which he had come to attend, and that from being one of the helpers he was doomed to become one of the wards. With a deep nobility of sentiment and a strength of mind that was rare, he determined to make known his condition. He came to Honolulu and consulted with a physician who diagnosed the symptoms as those of leprosy. There was no mark apparent to a casual observer, of the presence of the disease and had the Father desired he could readily have escaped abroad, but true to his idea of duty he went back to what was to prove his living grave.

To the other Brothers he told his condition, to them he admitted that he was no longer of them, but one of the "unclean." He left the home where the Brothers live apart from the lepers and took up his residence in a hut outside of the enclosure of the Brothers. They had formerly been his intimates and associates, but they would henceforth be forced to treat him, not as a Brother, but as an outcast who could never again be allowed to cross the threshold of the enclosure that had once been his in his days of health.

Sometime after he left his former home at Kalawao he moved to the Settlement at Kalaupapa. Brother Serapion has not as yet been examined by the regular Board of Medical Examiners, so officially he has never been declared a leper.

FEDERAL LAW

"Hon. Robert W. Breckons, United States Attorney Honolulu, Hawaii.

"Dear Sir: The case of Kerr vs. Shine involving the removal of the defendant in the case of the United States vs. Kerr to your district, was decided by the circuit court of appeals during the present term. The court reversed the decision of the two lower courts and discharged the petitioner and held that the interpretation given to Section 730 R. S. A. S. that 'the trial of all offenses committed upon the high seas * * * shall be in the district where the offender is found, or into which he is first brought,' that the word 'brought' means 'brought in legal custody' and for that reason the District court of Hawaii never acquired jurisdiction over the offender, he having departed from that district before a complaint was filed with the United States Commissioner there.

"Respectfully,
"MARSHALL B. WOODWORTH,
U. S. Attorney."

Kerr's alleged offense was committed on board the transport Buford, on her way here. He was alleged to have violently assaulted a fireman named Ramos, who was taken to the hospital here with a broken jaw. The transport Logan was in port at the same time, and Kerr, it is supposed with the assistance of companions, got on board her and skipped to San Francisco. The Buford was searched for him by Marshal Hendry, and when it was found that he was not on board it was decided that he must have skipped on the other transport and a cable was sent ordering his arrest to be returned here for trial. He was arrested in San Francisco harbor.

Kerr brought a habeas corpus suit against Shine, the United States Marshal at San Francisco, but the lower courts decided against him. These decisions have been reversed now.

In view of the decision at San Francisco two witnesses who have been held in custody in the case by Marshal Hendry were this morning ordered released by Judge Dole. Unless Kerr voluntarily returns here, it is said, the case is at an end as far as Honolulu is concerned.

There will be a special meeting of the Masters' and Pilots' Association next Sunday night at 7 o'clock. Business of considerable importance is to be discussed.
